

Location Map of Devonport House in London

Devonport House, King William Walk, Greenwich, London, SE10 9JW

Register for Conference

Conference Website

By Car

Exit the M25 at Junction 2, on to the A2 towards London. Follow the A2 for about 11.5 miles, passing through the Kidbrooke Interchange and the Sun-in-the-Sands Interchange. Take the slip road, signed A206 for Woolwich and Greenwich. Turn left at the bottom.

Follow this road for about 1.2 miles (signposted for Rotherhithe and Greenwich). Go through 4 sets of lights, passing The Arches swimming pool on the left. You are now in Greenwich. Go past the Maritime Museum and see Devonport House set back from the road with a lawn to the front. Go past it and keep in the left hand lane. (Nat West Bank on left) Turn left at the pedestrian crossing into Stockwell Street. Take the next left turn into Nevada Street (theatre on the corner). Turn left at the junction into King William Walk, Devonport House entrance is opposite you.

By Rail

To Greenwich Mainline Station, exit the station and turn left. Walk down the High Road (past the Cafe Rouge on the right) and bear right at the lights onto Nelson Road. (Nat West and Mexican Restaurant on the right) Take the first right up King William Walk and the main entrance to Devonport House is 100m on the left.

By Tube

The nearest DLR station is Cutty Sark for Maritime Greenwich. Turn left out of the station and proceed down the small arcade. Cross the road and head down College Approach towards the Old Royal Naval College. At the end of College Approach (in front of the West Gates) turn right onto King William Walk. Cross Romney Road (pedestrian crossing on left hand side). carry on up King William Walk towards

Devonport House and its surroundings

Devonport House is located on the World Heritage Site in Greenwich and steeped in naval history, the grand building in Devonport House is full of maritime glamour.

Delegates are encouraged to visit the other sites on the Maritime Greenwich World Heritage site, which include the National Maritime Museum incorporating the Prime Meridian of the world and London's only planetarium, the Maritime Galleries, the Royal Observatory and the 17th-century Queen's House amongst the beautiful scenery.